Honor Code Ratification

Report date: Friday 24 February 2012 00:31 EST

Honor Code Ratification

As at Poll close: Friday 24 February 2012 00:30 EST
Number of voters: 878 · Group size: 1152 · Percentage voted: 76.22
Ranked by votes

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Rank</th>
<th>Candidate(s)</th>
<th>Votes</th>
<th>%</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:</td>
<td>773</td>
<td>88.04</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2</td>
<td>(b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):</td>
<td>85</td>
<td>9.68</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3</td>
<td>(c) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code, but I cannot vote for its ratification for the following reason(s):</td>
<td>20</td>
<td>2.28</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Comments

1 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: i approve (but forgot to do this until now. hope it's not too late)

2 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s)::
   While I support the honor code and it's ideals, in practical terms, I find that our community as a whole fails to uphold the values state therein. While we consider matters of academic integrity essential, our own standards of interpersonal integrity are most often summarized as "you should confront people when their music is too loud." There is an appalling lack of respect in interpersonal matters. As a statement of social conduct, the honor code applies to the most intimate interpersonal interactions and to behaviors we may engage in outside of our conscious awareness. Though we may not intentionally disrespect others in a way that maps broader systems of injustice, we have a responsibility to each other to active try to prevent such instances, whether by ourselves and others. Racism happens here. Rape happens here. By pretending they do not and hiding behind our community ideals, we all violate the fundamental spirit of the honor code.

3 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons::
   The code is acceptable as is.

4 (c) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code, but I cannot vote for its ratification for the following reason(s)::
   The student body refused to include respect for the environment in it.
   "The words animal and environment make an inseparable pair. Each term implies the other. No animal could exist without an environment surrounding it. Equally, although not so obvious, an environment implies an animal (or at least an organism) to be surrounded. This means that the surface of the earth, millions of years before life developed on it, was not an environment properly speaking." (J.J. Gibson)

The honor code should be a living document, which reflects the developing values of the Haverford community. The environment may be already ambiguously implicit in the document, but it is that very ambiguity that we have to make explicit.

5 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s)::
   I disagree with the institution of Confrontation. It should not be an official injunction because disciplining fellow students does not accord with all members of the community. The administration should assume more authority in confronting students because it consists of academic professionals, who are better equipped to address disputes and to mete out any necessary penalties.

6 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons::
   I love the code.

7 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons::
   I see no reason not to

8 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons::
   It's sort of dope.
9. (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with them

10. (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe the Honor Code is essential to the Haverford community.

11. (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I worry that most people ratify the Code without actually thinking about it or simply so that they don't have to go to an additional plenary session if the code fails. I'm not sure how that could be fixed though. But it does seem to take away from the legitimacy of the whole ratification process.

12. (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's good

13. (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I am satisfied with the Code as it is presented here.

14. (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: yippee

15. (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the honor code.

16. (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The aspiration to live by the Honor Code is one thing that I love about Haverford. It's not always easy, but that doesn't mean we shouldn't try.

17. (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I love Haverford's Honor Code. It's one of the main reasons I love Haverford as much as I do. However, I think we, as a community, need to be reminded that the Honor Code does not give us a license or excuse for actions that are irresponsible, reckless, or possibly even illegal. I would like to emphasize the idea of personal responsibility and respect as well as responsibility and concern for others. The Honor Code is not a "scutcheon" of relativism to hide behind, and fortunately, I think that most people would agree with me. Unfortunately, people do not always practice what they preach.

18. (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: In the past, I've written essays in these comment boxes. Now as a senior, I am voting yes on the Code because it's almost time for me to leave Haverford, and I want to leave the Code in the hands of those who have yet to live out their experience here. Guys, the Honor Code is great. There are times it's frustrating: when you feel like others aren't following it, when you feel conflicted about following it, when you know you need to confront someone but -damn- it's hard. There are periods of time when you're disillusioned with it. But are also periods when you arise out of that disillusionment and you've just learned something new -- about yourself, about the Code, about the way this community works. The Honor Code and student self-government (in all aspects, not just formal ones) are what truly make Haverford a unique institution, a place I'll be honored to call my alma mater. Each person's time here is their own journey and their own experience with the Code, and it's important to keep it around so future generations of Haverford students can also experience it, think about it, learn from it, see how Haverford works. And then take those things out into the world and change something for the better. It shapes all of us and asks us to reflect on ourselves and our role within this community, and I think that's one of the most important things it can do. Very soon, the Code won't be mine anymore. But it will still be yours. So keep it going, and do it justice. It will give back to you too.

19. (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I stand by the revision.

20. (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I think it's working just fine.

21. (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I am ratifying the honor code because I firmly believe that it is still relevant and useful in community interactions at Haverford. I thoroughly appreciate the atmosphere of open dialogue, non-proctored exams and trust it creates. I probably would not have ratified the honor code had we passed the environment plenary resolution / honor code updates. I believe that that resolution was completely redundant and unnecessary. For me the honor code still works, and I am more than happy to ratify it today.

22. (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the ideals it represents

23. (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I think that on the whole the Honor Code is essential to creating the Haverford community as it now exists. I think having an Honor Code forces us to think and to be aware of our responsibilities. I do believe that the Honor Code fosters a community of trust, concern and respect, at least as much as is practical to expect. We're human and our Honor Code will never work perfectly, but I believe it's important even essential to Haverford as it exists now.

24. (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I have little to no problem with the code as written – I understand what it's trying to do, and I would love to live in the world it
But we at Haverford do not live in that world.

My objections to the Honor Code stem purely from what I have observed it becoming in the hands of the current student body. In my experience, the social aspects of the code, rather than fostering additional discussion, ultimately serve to discourage dialogue than encourage productive confrontation. As evidenced by the debate over the role of the environment in the code at Plenary last Sunday, a significant amount of the student body sees confrontation as the first step in a punitive process rather than an opportunity to have a meaningful conversation with a peer and reach “mutual understanding.” This is not helped by the fact that the college admits a lot of intelligent yet socially awkward students (just for the record, I wouldn’t be here if that wasn’t true) who in many cases are too shy to confront someone with whom they disagree. I’ve seen too many conflicts between friends get bottled up rather than discussed, and then passive-aggressively exploding a year later than they should have been addressed in the first place. For a school that emphasizes productive confrontation, you’ve got to admit that we’re pretty terrible at it.

The end result of all this is a campus culture that avoids controversy like the plague and would rather sit back and let interpersonal problems resolve themselves. This student body tries so hard to be conciliatory that it inevitably shies away from the kind of dialogue that leads to reconciliation. In many ways Haverford is even MORE gut-wrenchingly obsessed with unproductive political correctness than the small, sheltered town I grew up in. Our collective aversion to stepping on other peoples’ toes ultimately masks dialogue about clear problems with this community: the uncomfortable experience of many minority students at Haverford and the far too frequent perception of the college as an overbearingly wealthy “white man’s club,” the fact that trust, concern and respect go out the window when we get drunk and stop worrying about who’s cleaning up our mess, the fact that the enforced anonymity surrounding Honor Council trials completely strips away all avenues of support for people struggling with the interpersonal fallout from these same trials (especially if they’ve had less-than-adequate experiences with CAPS in the past). And did I mention the…you know… rape and sexual assault that for some reason we decided to stop talking about? Seriously, is nobody else worried about this, especially considering the fact that people who tried to mediate through the college were unsympathetically screwed over? When I read some of the personal accounts on SOAR’s blog I lost almost all faith in the power of the social honor code with regard to the relationships between members of student body as well as the relationships between students and faculty.

All things considered, my strong resentment of this school’s approach to the honor code is probably more than an adequate reason to vote against its ratification. But I ultimately decided to vote in its favor yet again, for no reason other than pure self-interest.

Because, at the end of the day, I really like being able to take tests on my own time, and I love, love, LOVE that people don’t steal my shit when I leave it lying around in the DC. The question I’ll be thinking about over the next year is whether or not we really need an Honor Code to make that happen.

25  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons::

26  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The Honor Code is one of the truly remarkable currents flowing through the Haverford community, and really the current that I think most other aspects of our community depend on. That doesn’t mean it’s perfect, but that it allows us to create, and to continue working to improve, a community characterized by respect for each other and built on trusting relationships. At its best, the Honor Code causes us to think and to care. It prompts us talk with each other in situations that may be initially uncomfortable but ultimately lead to deeper understanding and moments of connection with each other. I have heard the critique that the social Honor Code is vague, and it may be, but I think it is essential in making the Honor Code something that truly surrounds us and permeates all aspects of life at Haverford, instead of just something that gets turned on when you step into the classroom and off when you leave. And I think it’s powerful that the Code is a set of values and guidelines (rather than rules) that we as students must figure out how to live up to. I’ve engaged with the Honor Code in a multitude of ways and settings and with different people during the past three and a half years, and I can honestly say this has been by far the most meaningful part of my Haverford experience and the part that has allowed me to grow the most. I found the thoughtful debate at Plenary about including the environment in the Honor Code encouraging— it showed that while we may not agree on every detail, the Honor Code as an expression of community values continues to be of the utmost importance to students. I enthusiastically cast my vote to ratify the Honor Code, and I appreciate the crucial role it plays in our community.

27  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons::

28  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Eyy,
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Poll Results</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>29</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>30</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>31</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>32</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>33</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>34</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>35</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>36</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>37</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>38</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>39</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>40</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>41</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>42</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>43</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>44</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>45</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>46</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>47</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>48</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>49</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>50</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>51</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>52</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:

(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: I agree with the honor code is important. It's what makes Haverford's community thrive.

(b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s): I think it makes a difference in a good way.

(c) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code, but I cannot vote for its ratification for the following reason(s): Because the environmental resolution not passing, I think the Honor Code is an important document that guides life on Haverford campus. I would like to see more engagement with the meaning of the code, and more discussion about how it affects life on campus.

(d) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s): The honor code is hypocritical and while I'd like to think most of campus abides by it, I can say with certainty that this is not the case.

(e) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: I often hear it said that the Honor Code doesn't work, and it might seem that the people who make this argument have a point. After all, look at how many Honor Council abstracts are released every semester. Isn't something deeply wrong if there are as many instances of cheating and serious plagiarism as there are? Maybe so, but this doesn't mean there's a problem with the Code itself. When someone breaks the law, do we blame the law for not doing a better job of preventing the crime? Of course not. If we find that there's been a pattern of increased infractions, then we look for underlying causes. Perhaps we argue that the corresponding punishment is not severe enough to act as an effective deterrent, but we do not say that the law itself is to blame. We should take the same approach when thinking about the Honor Code. Our occasional failure to live up to its standards - both individually and collectively - does not mean that the Code itself is in need of fixing.

(f) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: it keeps Haverford Haverford

(g) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: The honor code is unique to our school and it wouldn't be the same at Haverford without it!

(h) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: It keeps the new additions and revisions to the code.

(i) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: It makes a difference in a good way.

(j) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: because I hope people actually adhere to it.

(k) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: I agree with the new additions and revisions to the code.

(l) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s): Despite the environmental resolution not passing, I think the Honor Code is an important document that guides life on Haverford campus. I would like to see more engagement with the meaning of the code, and more discussion about how it affects life on campus.

使我心中的荣誉感加深。
though it did not always produce the kind of community that I could believe in or even really recognize the Honor Code in.
While I intend to continue reflecting on my own actions and participating in this community, I think that it shouldn't be taken for granted that students will ratify the Code blindly or even willingly. I want to explore what the Honor Code means to me and my relationship to it, and feel that the best way to do this is to take a break.

77 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: honor

78 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: See ya never

79 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Honor code! Honor code! (Imagine this as a chant that begins slowly and gradually increases in speed).

80 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: it is necessary

81 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe that the Honor Code is presently an effective document. It achieves its purpose of encouraging us all to maintain an environment of mutual trust concern and respect.

82 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I feel that the Honor Code is a huge part of our community, and does create a better environment for us as students as well as all those involved with our community, but I also feel like there are many times, particularly in the social scene and involving alcohol, when the Honor Code is NOT upheld, and when nothing is done about it. I think that this needs to be addressed by the community.

83 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: the honor code, as it stands, is a good document that captures the spirit of student self-government and promotes the values that we honor on campus.

84 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's thoughtful.

85 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Because it is awesome

86 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I love the honor code

87 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: While I agree that the Honor Code already implies the importance of respecting the physical environment of Haverford, and that altering the code to be more explicit in this respect would be both superfluous and ineffective, I believe that the failed environmental proposal should instead be implemented as a policy, similar to the alcohol policy.

It is a sad reality that not everyone takes into account all that the Code "implies." It is my sincere hope that, when implemented as a separate and explicit policy, the environmental interests that concern such a large percentage of our students will be better respected by everyone at Haverford, even if opinions differ on the significance of environmental degradation.

88 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: x

89 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I approve this message

90 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: honor makes me smile

91 (c) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code, but I cannot vote for its ratification for the following reason(s):: I do not have any changes to make at this time.

92 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The honor code is an improvement because of the changes from Plenary.

93 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Because it is an integral part of Haverford.

94 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The Honor Code is the backbone of student self-governance at Haverford, and it should continue to exist because of that.

95 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: Plenary and post-plenary discussion has led me to believe that some students do not have a full understanding of the social part of the code. I hope that in the coming year we can create a campus in which the social code is understood and confrontation is not an event or an anomaly but a regularly-used tool of communication when necessary.

96 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe that the Honor Code is an asset to the community in that it acts to instill shared values of trust and honesty.

97 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: In my last semester at Haverford, I still feel strongly in favor of the Code as written. I hope to continue to live by the spirit of the Code in my life after leaving Haverford. Though I have no objections to the Code, I am concerned that there are rather widespread misunderstandings and misrememberings of portions of the Code (particularly with respect to confrontation). I hope the future will see more discussion of many aspects of the Code and either modifications of the Code to better match the apparent community understanding or (as I'd personally prefer) a change and increase in the community understanding of the Code as it stands.

98 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: it sounds good to me

99 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: fart

100 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It still stands for what I believe in

101 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The Honor Code is a manifestation of trust and respect throughout the community. Our participation in its upholding is a commitment to grow as individuals in a community and to support each others growth both academically and socially.

102 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: the honor code is great--love all the amendments made this year at plenary--lets work on respecting our environment for next time though!!

103 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Given the intensity of the debate over amendment of a portion of the Social Code this Plenary, I figure it would make sense for me to comment briefly here on how and why I think the Social Code works. Under a standard disciplinary system, that which is not allowed is clearly expressed. Students thus feel obligated simply to abide by the word of the rules, and tend not to have qualms about doing things as long as they are within the rules or can get away with them. The Social Honor Code, on the other hand, provides students with next to nothing in the way of specific guidelines for behavior. This is the characteristic of the Social Code that gives it its power. It shifts the onus, from being on the makers of the rules to enforce them, onto those who live under the rules, to challenge themselves to abide by The Code's spirit and not to be content with getting away with things that violate this spirit simply because they can. I believe that because the proposed amendment was ultimately just about respect for people as mediated through the environment, all that it would have done would have been to add an unnecessary degree of specificity that would weaken the Code, even if only slightly, and also would put emphasis arbitrarily on one type of social violation, lending decreased significance to all other types of social violations, none of which are addressed with any degree of specificity in The Code. In summary, the Social Code is about how we treat people. The resolution in question was designed to be about how we treat people as mediated by how we treat our environment. But by focusing on the medium through which we treat others well or poorly as opposed to the people that our treatment actually effects, it would have narrowed the scope Code, and made it more concrete. Such a change would not have been welcome given that the Code's strength lies in its breadth and abstraction.

104 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The honor code is symbolic of the Haverford community's commitment to academic integrity and our spirit of tight-knit community.

105 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I'm embarrassed to say that I had headphones on during plenary but, as a lemming and a lazy shlub, I will trust the majority.

106 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I support the Honor Code in its state as presented here.

107 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe we have carefully discussed the resolutions at plenary.

108 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: i do what i want

109 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with all aspects of the honor code

110 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Haverford's Honor Code is unique and awesome...

111 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: because

112 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: because it's greatttt!
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Number</th>
<th>Statement</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>113</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: i like haverford</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>114</td>
<td>(b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I feel that the Honor Code has started to be treated with apathy. It seems that too many people take it for granted, even though it is the most important feature of our college. I know that the main reason I came to Haverford was because of the Honor Code, and the current situation just disappoints me. This is a failure of the community and not the document, so I can only hope that the entirety of the student body will do everything to remember why they were so attracted to the Honor Code in the first place.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>115</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I have interacted with the Code socially and academically, as the confronted and confronting party, in both official and unofficial settings. I remain astounded by the Code's strength and flexibility, and moved by our community's real engagement with it.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>116</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I want the honor code</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>117</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: ...</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>118</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I feel the honor code represents an integral part of the Haverford community......</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>119</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the values expressed by the Code and I feel ready to abide by them and to live and work in a community where others do the same.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>120</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Because I am a departing senior and while the Honor Code has many problems that need to be addressed, am unable to correct them.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>121</td>
<td>(b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I am concerned by the discourse around confrontation at Haverford. At Plenary numerous students exhibited what I consider to be a deeply flawed understanding of the way that the Honor Code works. If students are equating confrontation with aggression and Honor Council with punishment, instead of realizing that the Code encourages us to communicate openly and honestly with each other and involve the Council only when communication is failing to resolve a conflict, that is a huge problem for this community.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>122</td>
<td>(c) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code, but I cannot vote for its ratification for the following reason(s):: I have in fact not &quot;thoughtfully considered&quot; my position on the Code. It is not clear to me that this sort of system, exemplified by Plenary, can work even if everyone &quot;thoughtfully considers,&quot; but I no longer have any reason to believe we are better off with a Code than without one. The Code involves a risk that we treat people differently in a way that is discriminatory (since there is no check that we do not), and the differential treatments of various council cases as seen in abstracts, where the supposed plagiarism in the most recent abstract led to a recommendation of a 0.0 on the assignment, as has become standard for less forgivable plagiarism, because [it seems, and in spite of professor's wishes] the jury was somehow 'not happy' with the student. This potential for discrimination (mainly by race/class) is not balanced by what one would expect, an integrated Haverford community that because of the Code deals with differences in general more effectively; but instead we have a profoundly segregated campus, in particular by race, a segregation that is facilitated and legitimated through the Honor Code (&quot;that is so un-Haverfordian&quot;).</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>123</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It represents the standards I believe any Haverford student should possess.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>124</td>
<td>(b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I am disappointed in the student body for being unwilling to update the code to include the important dimension about respecting the physical environment of the college. The language regarding social concerns is too narrow to include such a dimension upon any close reading. At the same time, I don't think the majority of Haverford students have read the Code so what does it matter?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>125</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It is a document that upholds a set of standards that I am in accordance with.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>126</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's awesome</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>127</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Because it is a good thing.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>128</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: While the Honor Code is not flawless and is by no means always followed, it's a document that we live up to. It encourages me to live up to the person I want to be, both academically and socially. Though I sometimes have issues with how other members of the community interpret and choose to follow the Honor Code, I don't have any issues with the code itself.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
129 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: it makes sense.

130 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: it's all good.

131 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: So far during my time at Haverford, the procedures the Honor Code outlines, especially with regard to confronting others in a responsible, polite way have served me well and allowed the community, in my opinion, to remain welcoming and pleasant.

132 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The honor code has worked for many years and I accept its objective and meaning for the Haverford way.

133 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's all good.

134 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's the honor code.

135 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with its policy.

136 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's fine the way it is.

137 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe that it upholds community standards.

138 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: So far during my time at Haverford, the procedures the Honor Code outlines, especially with regard to confronting others in a responsible, polite way have served me well and allowed the community, in my opinion, to remain welcoming and pleasant.

139 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The Honor Code is alive and well at Haverford. I appreciate the role it has played in my college experience.

140 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The honor code articulates a set of core values that we as a community attempt to uphold. Explicitly stating those values is an important part of upholding them.

141 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's pretty cool.

142 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The Honor Code continues to be an important part of Haverford's campus, and I wish it to always remain as something that connects the whole community together. #honorcodelove

143 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The Honor Code is awesome.

144 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's pretty cool.

145 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The honor code is awesome!

146 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The honor code is awesome!

147 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's good.

148 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's good.

149 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: how do we know when it is not working and could we ever be critical enough of ourselves to see if it wasn't working. The code is important to me but part of me feels as if merely the idea of its presence just appeases consciences rather than motivating actual actions in line with the code. Thanks for all the work that you all give to trying to make it more of a motivating and regulating standard of values though.

150 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe it works as it is right now.

151 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: the honor code is awesome!

152 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Honor code is great!
| 153 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The Honor Code helps insure the environment of trust, concern, and mutual respect that is fundamental to Haverford's academic and social prosperity. |
| 154 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe the Code as a whole allows for the formation of a respected community at Haverford |
| 155 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Because I want to |
| 156 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I think it is an important part of the Haverford Community. Without it, I feel that the atmosphere of the college would be drastically different and take away from its uniqueness. |
| 157 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe in the Honor Code and feel it is an important part of the Haverford community. |
| 158 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I support the Honor Code and the values it promotes within the community |
| 159 | (c) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code, but I cannot vote for its ratification for the following reason(s):: The honor code is a sham, and we students have proven unable to govern ourselves effectively under the current set up. We need to totally re-do the honor code and think about ceding some power to the faculty. |
| 160 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It needs to be ratified |
| 161 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: yay code! |
| 162 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: because |
| 163 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Because I love the Code and I believe in the Haverford community |
| 164 | (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I have difficulty assuming that everyone needs to/should be trusting each other. I do agree that the community should foster a climate of trust, but I also think that trust needs to be earned, and we should be working towards that. Trust is not implicit, it's a process. |
| 165 | (c) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code, but I cannot vote for its ratification for the following reason(s):: I feel that very few community members live up to the Code, and until there is a way to make its principles better permeate the community, I feel I cannot support a fake document. |
| 166 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I love the Honor Code! |
| 167 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I think it works as it is |
| 168 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: This school has been built on and functions around this wonderful code |
| 169 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: hello there |
| 170 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe in the Code despite the arguments that it is flawed because it is we who fail the Code and not the other way around. |
| 171 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Trust, Concern, Respect |
| 172 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: it outlines the principles that allow us to sustain Haverford's atmosphere of trust, concern and respect |
| 173 | (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: - |
| 174 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I've agreed with how it's influenced campus life thus far |
| 175 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: its the most important part of haverford |
| 176 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's great! |
| 177 | (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I see no great changes to the code that would lead me to vote against it. However, I object, as I have always done, to a |
178 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Standard

179 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It is intrinsic to Haverford

180 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: All it does is win

181 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Because the document has successfully guided my social and academic choices since coming to Haverford College, and I think it offers a guideline that would help any member of our community to lead an ethical life, both as a student and in a broader sense as a person.

182 (c) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code, but I cannot vote for its ratification for the following reason(s):: I do not believe in Plenary.

183 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: :)

184 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It creates a wonderful, friendly atmosphere on campus!

185 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: it is what makes this school great.

186 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe that the code is vital to life at Haverford.

187 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: People need to better understand the intent of the code so that our community can function better.

188 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I think that there is a lot of misunderstanding about what it means to confront someone. It seems like there is a widespread hesitancy to confront someone in a casual way about small things that obviously won't and shouldn't go to honor counsel, because it's obviously easier to just let something go than it is to deal with it. I think the Honor Code has become equated with Honor Council proceedings, a process which the majority of campus feels very little to no ownership over.

189 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: While the Honor Code promotes a restorative rather than punitive form of reconciliation - outside of Honor Council, in day to day occurrences - it is hard for students (especially freshman) to remember that and confront each other without wanting to blame and ostracize each other.

190 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: ...because I agreed when I came here

191 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Everything sounds great!

192 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The honor code is the fundamental reason why we have to much freedom on campus. It gives us the power to create, initiate, and collaborate amongst ourselves.

193 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Code pwns.

194 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Love it!

195 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: cool

196 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Its good

197 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: When life gives you lemons, life kinda sucks (until you find someone whom life gave vodka and have a party, but that's beside the point). Luckily, at Haverford thanks to the honor code, lemons aren't as common, and they're not as sour cause you get them at the d.c., so they're not at the top notch quality. So basically, the honor code rocks!

198 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I am very satisfied with the current version of the Honor Code; I believe it can successfully perpetuate our community's values, which is its goal. However, I object in particular to what I understand as the Honor Council's mission to be more consistent regarding academic trials. Honor Council is obligated to consider every case without precedent or standardization, and I particularly object to what seems to be Honor Council's "easy way out" of putting the requisite thought into producing a wholly appropriate tailored verdict for each academic trial.

199 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It is what makes our community a special place to live and work, but above all, grow.

https://www.bigpulse.com/mpm/1301547/pollresultsummary#report
200 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe that Honor Code is so important to our community and it allows for an environment that functions on the basis of trust, concern, and respect.

201 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It is great!

202 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: derp derp derp

203 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: All of the amendments and resolutions I have found agreeable. The Code has been greatly improved.

204 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I don't believe the part on separation and grade change for plagiarism should be in the Honor Code.

205 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I am a Haverford Student and I endorse this message.

206 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Yay honor!

207 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: The Honor Code is a great document, but people should not allow it to stifle what could be important conversations around campus, embrace the true meaning of our Honor Code and discuss!

208 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: i think it works for haverford

209 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I fully support the honor code and its intention at Haverford, but I must comment that--as a disenchanted senior--I can no longer feel the true attitude of the honor code around campus. Perhaps those little things for granted now, but I just don't see the feeling of community and widespread respect on a day-to-day basis anymore.

210 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Ass ass ass ass ass make it motherfucking hammertime

211 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The Code is integral to the identity of Haverford and allows students to bear an appropriate amount of responsibility.

212 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I think that the honor code is something that makes Haverford unique, and although I feel that in many situations it is not followed and is used as an excuse for people to do whatever they want and get away with it, in theory I think it's a great idea and I hope that someday people will choose to uphold it.

213 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: .

214 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: The fact that this code somehow gives a council the pretentious jurisdiction over others disgusts me. After spending time on a trial last year, and observing much of the action of honor council this year, I feel that the council that is supposed to be our leaders in acting upon the honesty which the Code promotes is made up of very self-righteous people, who believe that their place in the council gives them the right to spew absolute garbage in the hopes of sounding smarter than everybody. Also, letting people off for cheating all the time makes it seem pretty useless, doesn't it? Let's actually be serious about it and kick some people out. That is all.

215 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's what binds our community together.

216 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It fully represents the needs of the community.

217 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: harsce!! yuuuuscement

218 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: love it!

219 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's awesome

220 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The honor code is vital to the function of our community. I believe in its value as a living document.

221 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Drob sucks

222 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: sounds good.

223 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It works pretty well.
I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:

(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's great. The honor code is the best part of Haverford! Yay! The honor code served the community well last semester and the recent plenary resolutions look promising. It's all around sexy.

(b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The honor code is the best part of Haverford! Yay! It's all around sexy.

There's still a safety net if things don't work out. Most people would not choose to try to feed themselves without a full kitchen, but if someone wants to try, that should be their choice as an independent adult. In fact, college is the perfect time to try cooking for one's self, where there's still a safety net if things don't work out. I think we need a Code-respecting meal plan.

try, that should be their choice as an independent adult. In fact, college is the perfect time to try cooking for one's self, where there's still a safety net if things don't work out. I think we need a Code-respecting meal plan. It's totally an unrealizable ideal, and one that we have probably gotten farther away from during my time at Haverford, but sometimes having an ideal in the back of your mind is a good thing. I don't think that anyone actually follows it completely, but it's a nice idea.

The Code doesn't seem to trust us to manage our own physical exercise or even feed ourselves. The Code expects us to act as responsible adults in academic and social situations, to the point of self-policing on exams, but the College doesn't seem to trust us to manage our own physical exercise or even feed ourselves. The Code serves the community well last semester and the recent plenary resolutions look promising. It's all around sexy.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The honor code is an integral part of of Haverford's academic and social environment. The Code brings people who care to Haverford. The changes made at plenary 2k12.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I think that people often don't consider the importance of the honor code and community standards in their daily, non academic life, but the honor code is still a huge part of our community and serves as a good model to strive for. The Code served the community well last semester and the recent plenary resolutions look promising. It's all around sexy.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I have no objections to the Code.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The Code maintains the atmosphere of dignity and respect critical to Haverford.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It still maintains the atmosphere of dignity and respect critical to Haverford. It still maintains the atmosphere of dignity and respect critical to Haverford.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the honor code because while it is ideal, I think the student body is able to follow it, and there are no parts that I think stand in objection to our values or behaviors.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the honor code because while it is ideal, I think the student body is able to follow it, and there are no parts that I think stand in objection to our values or behaviors.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the honor code because while it is ideal, I think the student body is able to follow it, and there are no parts that I think stand in objection to our values or behaviors.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the honor code because while it is ideal, I think the student body is able to follow it, and there are no parts that I think stand in objection to our values or behaviors.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the honor code because while it is ideal, I think the student body is able to follow it, and there are no parts that I think stand in objection to our values or behaviors.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the honor code because while it is ideal, I think the student body is able to follow it, and there are no parts that I think stand in objection to our values or behaviors.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the honor code because while it is ideal, I think the student body is able to follow it, and there are no parts that I think stand in objection to our values or behaviors.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the honor code because while it is ideal, I think the student body is able to follow it, and there are no parts that I think stand in objection to our values or behaviors.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the honor code because while it is ideal, I think the student body is able to follow it, and there are no parts that I think stand in objection to our values or behaviors.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the honor code because while it is ideal, I think the student body is able to follow it, and there are no parts that I think stand in objection to our values or behaviors.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the honor code because while it is ideal, I think the student body is able to follow it, and there are no parts that I think stand in objection to our values or behaviors.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the honor code because while it is ideal, I think the student body is able to follow it, and there are no parts that I think stand in objection to our values or behaviors.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the honor code because while it is ideal, I think the student body is able to follow it, and there are no parts that I think stand in objection to our values or behaviors.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the honor code because while it is ideal, I think the student body is able to follow it, and there are no parts that I think stand in objection to our values or behaviors.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the honor code because while it is ideal, I think the student body is able to follow it, and there are no parts that I think stand in objection to our values or behaviors.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the honor code because while it is ideal, I think the student body is able to follow it, and there are no parts that I think stand in objection to our values or behaviors.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the honor code because while it is ideal, I think the student body is able to follow it, and there are no parts that I think stand in objection to our values or behaviors.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the honor code because while it is ideal, I think the student body is able to follow it, and there are no parts that I think stand in objection to our values or behaviors.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the honor code because while it is ideal, I think the student body is able to follow it, and there are no parts that I think stand in objection to our values or behaviors.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the honor code because while it is ideal, I think the student body is able to follow it, and there are no parts that I think stand in objection to our values or behaviors.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the honor code because while it is ideal, I think the student body is able to follow it, and there are no parts that I think stand in objection to our values or behaviors.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the honor code because while it is ideal, I think the student body is able to follow it, and there are no parts that I think stand in objection to our values or behaviors.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the honor code because while it is ideal, I think the student body is able to follow it, and there are no parts that I think stand in objection to our values or behaviors.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the honor code because while it is ideal, I think the student body is able to follow it, and there are no parts that I think stand in objection to our values or behaviors.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the honor code because while it is ideal, I think the student body is able to follow it, and there are no parts that I think stand in objection to our values or behaviors.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the honor code because while it is ideal, I think the student body is able to follow it, and there are no parts that I think stand in objection to our values or behaviors.
246  (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I have heard a lot of talk amongst students in the last year about the fact that honor council is not making violators of the honor code face serious enough consequences. An honor code only works if everyone believes that the code is being taken seriously and that violations are the rare exception. If it starts being perceived as a joke, students will stop feeling compelled to follow it. Honor Council should take violations more seriously, as they threaten faith in the honor code by the student body.

247  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Its great!

248  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe the honor code accurately reflects the values of the majority of the members of this community.

249  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the changes.

250  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I love the Honor Code and the community it helps to shape Haverford into.

251  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: yay

252  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's an important part of creating the Haverford community

253  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe in the Code because I believe in Haverford, in my community, and in myself. I believe in the importance of building character through academic integrity and social respect, and in working together to steep ourselves in learning beyond academia-the learning of how to be the best people and more importantly the best community we can be. However, I feel a great concern that many in the community believe that one community issue at any given point may threaten the Code or the school as a whole (the incomplete Plenary of Spring '10, the fallout from Planets, the egregious case of Amelia Earhart, the rejection of the environment and the code resolution recently). I take this as a Chicken Little syndrome. Because one person senses a piece of the sky as falling, he or she suddenly insists upon bringing down the entire sky on everyone else. Someone sees one aspect of the code, or most often of Code interpretation and understanding of community standards, not reflecting his or her personal understanding and suddenly the whole thing is being written of as moot, as "failing." It's a long and beautifully/complexly nuanced code people, and it's been designed to evolve with us. Let's just all try to not freak out as we hit a rough spot on occasion, and instead, use such rough spots to learn. Plenary has changed in response to Spring '10; plagiarism education has been reinvigorated; people are engaging in dialogues about the relationship between the environment and the Code. We've worked through these issues together, and we will continue to do so in generations to come. Have a little faith in the Code and in the community, and if you see an issue, don't just blame it on the Code itself-see it as your responsibility to affect a positive change.

254  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I feel that the honor code is vital to keeping Haverford a trusting community.

255  (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I wish that the environmental additions had been successfully passed

256  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's good

257  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Its a great Honor Code

258  (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: It seems like as Haverford goes up in the rankings, more priority is given to academics and athletics than moral issues surrounding the honor code. I would like for the honor code to be given greater consideration in the admissions process, rather than a primary interest in increasing the college's reputation among those outside of the Haverford community.

259  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Seems like a good idea to me.

260  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It creates a cohesive and respectful student body.

261  (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I think the honor code as an idea is a great one and I do my best to follow it, but I know many people that don't and feel that this detracts from the community as a whole. I don't know what can be done to fix it, but people need to understand that the honor code is not something to follow when its convenient. Its something they should follow because it helps themselves and everyone else grow, as individuals and as a community.

262  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Self-scheduled finals are a beautiful thing.
263 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Love it.

264 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Continue to support self governance at HC

265 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Don't like the code but would rather have it than no code.

266 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I think the language is clear and represents the values of this school well.

267 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: -

268 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It is an integral part of our community.

269 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with everything

270 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I love the Honor Code; it's what makes Haverford Haverford!!!

271 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The resolutions presented and passed were thoughtful and in line with the spirit of the Honor Code.

272 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I believe in the spirit of the honor code, but actually putting it into practice is an entirely different thing; in fact I have see it be completely ignored by both students and the administration time and time again.

273 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It is effective as it is, and is better than not having one

274 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I support the results of the discussions that took place at plenary.

275 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe in the values the honor code represents

276 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Seems legit.

277 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It seems important to have a document that unites a community whose members operate in highly diverse contexts, and this document seems to do that.

278 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: it makes me hot

279 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It works.

280 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Looks good!

281 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Yes

282 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: hooray for the code!

283 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I truly believe the Honor Code shapes my social interactions and pushes me and those around me to be better people. I also want to keep the academic privileges that we are able to enjoy because of the Honor Code, like self-scheduled exams.

284 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I see nothing wrong with it.

285 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: sounds good

286 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Honor Code=Haverlife:)

287 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agreed with it last year, and I aprove of everything that was included this year

288 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I love it

289 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It is amazing.

290 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It is good.

291 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree
292 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It is an essential part of this school and reflects values that shape the community.

293 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Because I approve

294 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I am not convinced that all of student council's decisions regarding Plenary resolutions were necessarily just.

295 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Haverford's environment of mutual respect and understanding can not be better represented but only by the Honor Code. And I definitely see the atmosphere on campus because of the honor code.

296 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: The sense of Haverford's community isn't thoroughly enough addressed by the Code's focus on social issues. Social issues are at the core but equally important is our respect for our surroundings, which I feel can be interpreted into the code as it exists currently, but also deserves explicit mention.

297 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Pretty good stuff

298 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I think it is well thought through and includes all appropriate sections that have been discussed by the community.

299 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It provides for the environment I seek to be a part of at Haverford.

300 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The academic and social honor codes have been a big part of my experience of Haverford through the years - I'm honored to get to ratify it one last time!

301 (c) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code, but I cannot vote for its ratification for the following reason(s):: I believe in the ideals of the Honor Code, but I cannot vote for its ratification because I do not think it functions as it is intended to. The Honor Council shrouds the state of the Honor Code in mystery, to the extent that the student body has very little idea what is going on. I am not suggesting that Honor Council is engaging in any shady activities, but that the lack of public knowledge is leading to ignorance. I am sure that the student body will vote to ratify the Honor Code, but do they really know what they are voting for? How can you know if something is working in our community if you know almost nothing about it? We are blindly voting to ratify something, and we will never know if we have made the right decision. I cannot vote to ratify the Honor Code because I believe that we need to consider the effectiveness of the Honor Code with more facts than we have now. Confidentiality is an honorable goal, but at what point does it impede upon the community's right to know what is going on?

302 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It is good as is.

303 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I worry that prospective and admitted students do not understand the scope of the Honor Code and how deeply rooted it is in our community; this seems to be reflected in the dismissive attitudes that some members of our community have toward Plenary.

304 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with it.

305 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I like it.

306 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The Honor Code is upholding the ideals and morals of Haverford College and its students in every facet possible.

307 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: self scheduled exams, I like the atmosphere it creates, trust concern & respect, what holds Haverford together

308 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with both the existing code and the recent amendments. Give it a try!

309 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The values of trust, concern, and respect that are articulated in the Honor Code make Haverford a special place.

310 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: the honor code is awesome

311 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: it should consider the commitment students have to the natural and physical environment on-campus
312 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: because its the honor code -_____-

313 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe it to be a well-thought-out, appropriate alteration of the code, however small. I approve of the ratification.

314 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I fully support the Code as a whole.

315 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the revisions

316 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I would like our Honor Code to be a continued part of our life at Haverford. (I hope that) it is at the core of our being as a community, and I would like for it to stay that way.

317 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Although I am a freshman, I know the Honor Code has been effective at Haverford. I see nothing that needs to be added, and hope it will continue to lead the actions of our community.

318 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I have no objections to anything stated

319 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: it's great

320 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's good.

321 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I feel that the Honor Code upholds all the values of Haverford College. It covers both the essential community aspect of the college and summarizes the points necessary to uphold the academic integrity of the our unique community.

322 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It has everything in it that I wanted to be in the code.

323 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It works. End of story. Period

324 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Its good

325 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I think it speaks to the spirit of Haverford that students should strive to live up to here and afterwards.

326 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The honor code is an integral part of haverford's community

327 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: i agree with the decisions made at Plenary

328 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Trust. Concern. Respect.

329 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe that the Honor Code as it is currently written has a positive impact on day to day life in our community, and I have no major objections to the text of the Code as it currently stands.

330 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I like Haverford

331 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It guides us to be a more thoughtful and moral community

332 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I like it.

333 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons::

334 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: why not?

335 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe the resolutions passed were well thought out and beneficial to the Haverford community.

336 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agreed with changes made.

337 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's my last semester and I believe the honor code works overall

338 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The Honor
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Poll Results</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>339 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I think the ratification can improve the student self-governance in Haverford.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>340 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The code is a valuable part of Haverford's institution, and I like it as is.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>341 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: During the &quot;environment debate&quot; during this past Plenary, a student mentioned confronting another student who littered outside her apartment, asking him to pick the can up; the dismissive response she received should not be acceptable to anyone at this school. I do not object to the Code as a written text but the to Code as we live it. Each student needs to live up to the responsibility which the Code affords us, especially when it comes to how we treat the shared spaces on campus. I attended the Bryn Mawr East-West party several weeks ago and saw students cleaning up the dorm at 3:30am, taking responsibility for the party they threw in a shared space. We should do no less than the students at Bryn Mawr, we should live up to our Code and other social documents in our daily lives.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>342 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: Breaking it does not seem to have any serious consequences with regards to restoring trust in the community. Yes, the dean not can check a box, but that doesn't make me feel better about the fact that a significant percentage of my peers cheat.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>343 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I think that the added environmental parts were unnecessary, but I also think that people need to be more aware of environmental issues on campus. For instance: littering, especially on weekends, is a constant problem that needs to be addressed.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>344 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The honor code continues to be a key element of my time at Haverford.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>345 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Its construction is well-grounded and I believe in the ethics that it institutes.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>346 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: it's duh bomb</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>347 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: its not perfect, but we need it</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>348 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: The Honor Code at Haverford, I believe, is ultimately weakened by the fact that we are not a cohesive community. In my personal experience, there is a deep divide between the treatment of the honor code by those who are in different &quot;sectors&quot; of the haverford community; namely, those who are on sports teams and those who are not. Large sports teams, mostly. People on sports teams are recruited, and I believe that this leads to a greater institutional (on the part of the team as a whole) disregard of both the social and academic codes, as large teams are small communities unto themselves. I believe it is important to continue to work to spread the codes spirit and try to foster community within haverford as a whole, but ultimately, I'm not sure it's possible when such a large portion of the campus are members of communities with competing ideologies.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>349 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The honor code is important for the community.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>350 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It is an integral part of the community and helps Haverford be the wonderful place it is.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>351 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Hooray, the code</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>352 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: because I believe in the honor code</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>353 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I feel it still encapsulates the values of Haverford.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>354 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I think it includes all necessary topics and successfully brings our school together.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>355 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with all of its tenants.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>356 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The Code is imperfect, as are all documents, but it drives at the heart of what Haverford is and should be all about.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>357 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It is a wonderful document, and effective so long as the majority of the student body continues to have faith in it and expect that</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I love the community it creates.

(b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: Although I am a strong supporter of the Honor Code and everything that it stands for, it is hard for me to vote for the continuation of a policy which is often overlooked and ignored. Not only the social honor code, which would be very difficult to follow to the letter (but then again, why did we all choose Haverford?) but also the academic honor code has been infringed upon too many times for the honor code to be considered a healthy policy. The reason that I am voting for the honor code is that I don't know what alternative there would be. I'm afraid that if we gave up the pretense of honor which we hold now so dearly, a vital piece of the Haverford identity would be compromised.

(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Great Justice.

(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Its coooooool!

(b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: The code is not perfect and does not pervade every place on campus or aspect of campus life. However, it is essential in the parts of the school it works on, and on the portion of the student body who takes it seriously. It is, at this point, the best option we have, and not so broken as to demand fixing or nixing. With these reservations, I ratify it.

(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Without the Honor Code, there is no Haverford.

(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: the honor code is essential to haverford!

(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The Code is an integral part of our community. Although there's no way to measure its effectivity, that's sort of the point--it's all about trusting ourselves and the other members of our community, and there's no greater trust in this context than the trust that the Honor Code is being followed and respected by all.

(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: the Code allows for student governance that is based on the community standards and not top-down rules.

(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I think it accurately reflects the desires of the student body.

(b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I do not think the honor code is doing as much as we think it is. In the past year, I've received several e-mails from honor council about how many more violations there have been. Yet, I do not see anything being done to change this. Furthermore, when I have confronted people, about social and academic situations, my attempts at opening up a discussion have only led to arguments and broken friendships. I am highly skeptical about having a social honor code if nobody is going to follow it.

(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Why do we have to comment

(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: This code's well for us

(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Code love.

(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Seems to work well in general.

(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It creates a trusting, respectful community for the most part. It makes us aware of the needs of other we live and work with. It allows for a more equal and trusting relationship specifically between students and professors. It fosters discussion.

(b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: Although it is an ambiguous document, that at times confuses what is a moral obligation to which we as Haverford students are to be held accountable and what is a moral aspiration that guides our striving to be better citizens of this community, it still sets an important tone, one that helps us be what we must and what we should.

(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The Honor Code is being followed and respected by all.

Honor Code, there is no Haverford.

Honor Code, there is no Haverford.

Honor Code is an integral part of our community.

Honor Code is being followed and respected by all.

Honor Code allows for student governance that is based on the community standards and not top-down rules.

Honor Code accurately reflects the desires of the student body.

Honor Code is doing as much as we think it is.

Honor Code has been infringed upon too many times.

Honor Code is all about trusting ourselves and the other members of our community.

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!

Honor Code is essential to haverford!
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Code is what gives Haverford its personality. Without it, the freedoms we enjoy and the responsibility we take for our actions would be jeopardized. The Honor Code creates the best possible environment for free intellectual and social exploration within moral limits, and therefore should be allowed to continue to do so.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the Honor Code and believe it helps to uphold the values of Haverford College.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It seems to work well as is to me.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe in the tenants our code inspires us to live by.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: : I believe it reflects the best interests of both myself and the student body, and ensures the continuation of all the practices and communal trust I associate with Haverford.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's the foundation of our school, we can't function without it.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: THE HONOR CODE IS RAD.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It upholds the integrity of this academic and social environment</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Cuz its good</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: love the code</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Reasonable and makes sense.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I see no reason to fix what ain't broken.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: We need to stop peeing on everything and we need to stop stealing road signs. The Code still applies on Saturday nights.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: People do not seem to think the code applies when they are drunk...</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: A</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I worry that people don't take the time to consider how the Honor Code is meant to shape our community, how it succeeds, and how it fails.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The Honor Code represents the collaborative and considerate spirit that is so integral to the academic and social atmospheres created on the Haverford campus.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Its benefits exceed its costs</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: it works</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It is great</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: fine to me</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I am in agreement with the amendments and the Honor Code overall.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Because I like the Honor Code an don't have any real objections to its current form.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: .</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Love it.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I appreciate the values that the Code represents, but we do not adequately teach our student body how to hold each other</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: It is very important to Haverford.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: I am in agreement with all the passed resolutions and the rest of the Code as it stands.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: I love living under it. I particularly appreciate the freedom and sense of personal accountability it enables.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: I do think that we’re better off ratifying the honor code. I just want to point out something that’s come to the fore in our discussion of the environment, which is that the social honor code has become something of a relic. We, as a community, are unwilling to confront on social grounds. What good is the social honor code if we don’t act in accordance with it?

I would say this is also true for academics, but I don’t want to talk about that now, because I think the academic honor code is still relevant, or relevant enough.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: It’s served me well thus far.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: I agree.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: I concur.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: I ratify the code because it is a huge part of Haverford. Not ratifying it would be like saying I hate Haverford.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: I feel the code is strong and have no objections at the present moment.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s): The Code as currently incarnated seems a bit too complex, and I would recommend a committee be formed to review possible simplifications.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s): I approve of the honor code.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s): I ratify the code because it is strong and have no objections at the present moment.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s): I hope that it will have an impact, no matter how small, on how Haverford students consider their actions.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: I agree.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: I am in agreement with all the passed resolutions and the rest of the Code as it stands.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: It all sounds good to me.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: I would say this is also true for academics, but I don’t want to talk about that now, because I think the academic honor code is still relevant, or relevant enough.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s): The Code as currently incarnated seems a bit too complex, and I would recommend a committee be formed to review possible simplifications.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s): Without the Honor Code, Haverford would not be the wonderful place that it is.
431 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: a
432 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I like it.
433 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I think the Honor Code is a very important element of life here at Haverford, and that by ratifying I am choosing to abide by the Code and am voicing my confidence in the Code as a valuable part of our lives
434 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It is what the people of Haverford voted for.
435 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I think it is sufficient.
436 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's the honor code.
437 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Better.
438 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Yay code!
439 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I approve
440 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Enter comment here.
441 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I love the code!
442 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: at plenary this year, I realized that people have different ideas about the purpose of the text...I think it will be useful, eventually to figure out a way in which as a student body, or part of a student body, can come together to discuss the meaning of the honor code outside of plenary.
443 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I have nothing against what the honor code says
444 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe it's instrumental in emphasizing the environment of trust, concern and respect that Haverford prides itself on.
445 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It is the gas to the 'Ford
446 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's awesome!
447 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The Honor Code ratification is justified and upholds the true values of the Code
448 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's central to Haverford.
449 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Looks good to me.
450 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I think it SHOULD include something about care for the environment. I hope the resolution comes up for discussion again in the future.
451 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: No separation clause for students who plagiarize
452 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Sounds good to me.
453 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The honor code works and it defines Haverford
454 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: because i like it
455 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with it
456 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Because it is Haverford and Haverford's awesome of course
457 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Honor code is great!
458 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It is an integral part of Haverford life
459  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I have no objections. I agree with all of it.

460  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe in the fundamental values of the Honor Code and wish for it to continue play such an important role in the everyday proceedings at Haverford College.

461  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: soundds good

462  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: the honor code is why i chose haverford

463  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe the code is an effective method to facilitate a respectful, functional community at Haverford, and I support it fully.

464  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: it works

465  (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: The more openly allow something, the more free everyone gets, not understanding the limits-- if it's limited, then they only go slightly above the limits. I am aware that most of the Haverford community is responsible, however, there needs to be limitations for those who cannot handle themselves. There also needs to be a honor code guideline for cleanliness in parties.

466  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: love the code

467  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: -i like the honor code, because people don't steal my stuff.

468  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Yay haverford

469  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: it works

470  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Who wouldn't?

471  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It is important to the community

472  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: its good

473  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's honorable.

474  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: MITCHELL!

475  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Yay honor code!

476  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: it's great

477  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I support the affair.

478  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: its greatttttt

479  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The honor code is fine as is.

480  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Honor code is the most attractive thing of Haverford.

481  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: .

482  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe in the idea that professors and students should have a relationship of trust

483  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Honor code for the win. Following generations of students must experience its greatness.

484  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I enjoy going to a college where people believe in respecting themselves, others, and community standards.

485  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It works

486  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's the honor code.

487  (c) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code, but I cannot vote for its ratification for the following reason(s)::
Social honor code is ineffective.

488 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: confrontation seems kind of broken :(

489 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I have never had any objections to the honor code.

490 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It works.

491 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: Implied rights and trust/concern/respect are not enough. The Code should have a mention of physical environment, as was shot down in Plenary this year, because without guidance people are not always able or willing to take it into consideration. It's not about confronting people for littering, it's about self-awareness and self-regulation.

492 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The honor code is AWESOME

493 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's worked so far.

494 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It plays an important role in all aspects of life at Haverford.

495 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It works.

496 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: because plenary was great!

497 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Accurately reflects values of the community

498 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Even though I'm a jaded senior, and I realize the Code doesn't actually work at all, we might as well ratify it so that we can still talk about it in admissions and stuff like that.

499 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Haverford would be like an unweened baby without it

500 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: it is awesome

501 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I have no issues with the way the code is currently written.

502 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I like the values that the honor code upholds.

503 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It seems to work and there's nothing I would change.

504 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's awesomeeee

505 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: its important

506 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Haverford wouldn't be Haverford without it.

507 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I just feel as though it is a little old school.

508 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the Honor Code's current state.

509 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: yey honor code

510 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: While imperfect, I am grateful to have a document with shared vocabulary for a common discourse on living "honorably." I believe the code does guide our experiences here for the better in most ways by facilitating greater reflection on how we conduct ourselves as individuals and as an interdependent community on this campus and in the world. As someone about to graduate with some ambivalent feelings about Haverford on the whole, I am still quite grateful to have had the opportunity to live with the Code for these past 4 years.

511 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe the Code is suitable for ratification.
512. (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The Honor Code has served me well through my freshman year at Haverford and I would like to see it continue to be an integral part of our community here.

513. (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I cannot imagine a Haverford with no Honor Code. No document is perfect, but when students understand the spirit of the code and truly take it to heart, the phrasing of each clause and placement of each comma mean relatively little.

514. (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Looks good!

515. (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Honor Code is so unique to Haverford and it's part of what makes the school so fantastic!

516. (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I like the honor code.

517. (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It is essential to Haverford's campus and community.

518. (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's fine

519. (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I think the social honor code needs work. It's something we all say, but people don't live by it. We're not all looking out for each other like we should be, there is no altruism. And that's really sad

520. (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Because I think it that it is the right thing to do and that even with its faults it is important and should be ratified

521. (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It works more often than it doesn't.

522. (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Because I think it is the best form of self regulation and provides the best atmosphere of community and friendship on campus.

523. (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the proposed changes

524. (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: !

525. (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I am extremely disappointed that students are so thoughtless and self-centered as to not be willing to support the environment through the Honor Code. We almost weren't even willing to change our admissions policies for undocumented students because we are"afraid of breaking the law." Yet none of us are afraid to break the law when it comes to under-age drinking. It seems to me that we are using the Honor Code, and Haverford College in general, to our own advantage, but not seeing it requiring global responsibility.

526. (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The changes made are good ones, and the integrity of the honor code remains.

527. (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: While the application of the values articulated in the code may not always be ideal, it's sure a hell of a lot better than the application of the values articulated in the code would be if it wasn't ratified.

528. (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe that the honor code fosters a safe community environment and holds students to a high standard of academic integrity.

529. (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I still like trust, concern and respect.

530. (c) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code, but I cannot vote for its ratification for the following reason(s):: I do not have enough knowledge of the ratifications to vote.

531. (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I am concerned that members of the community view Haverford as "having no rules" when, in fact, the Honor Code calls on us to hold ourselves and fellow community members accountable for creating a respectful, accepting, and responsible environment.

532. (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Thorough.

533. (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Sounds good to me.

534. (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The honor code promotes a safe environment for everyone and I think it is great that we all follow it so well.
(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It works for me.

(b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I fear, as I have for some time that most students do not spend much time considering how the honor code should guide their behavior. I think we too easily think of the code as something that provides us with privileges without considering the obligations it places on us.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: What's Haverford without the Honor Code?

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: because it has worked well

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: going well.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I am concerned about the lack of discussion and debate surrounding the code's ratification in plenary.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I feel that the Honor Code helps to maintain the open and engaging community that is essential to Haverford.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I <3 HONOR CODE

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's mad chill.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: :) I feel that the Code is vital to the integrity of the Haverford community

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The Honor Code is vitally important to Haverford and I am in favor of it.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The Honor Code is what defines Haverford College. I am very comfortable with it.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I have considered my position and I vote for its ratification because I love the honor code and I believe that the Code makes the Haverford community so amazing.

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: its a lie

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: i like leaving my door unlocked

I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: the code works
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Poll Results</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>558 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: iz a gud thang</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>559 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe it accurately represents the Haverfordian community</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>560 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons::</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>561 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: You asked.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>562 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with it</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>563 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I have been here for four years and have seen the Honor Code work effectively on many separate occasions. Although it has its flaws, I believe it works the great majority of the time and fosters the wonderful environment in which we all live.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>564 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe the code truly stands for what it means to be a Haverford student. However, I think people need to be held more accountable for the words of the code and what they stand for in terms of respect for ourselves, for others, and for the school in general.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>565 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: We the People of the Haverford Community, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Honor Code for the United Squirrels of Haverford.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>566 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe in the power of this code and that it strengthens both the individuals at Haverford and the community as a whole.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>567 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: For the most part, the Honor Code functions and makes Haverford the unique place that it is. It holds the community up to meaningful and important ideals that make the College a nurturing environment.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>568 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Everything in the code is agreeable and legitimate. No reasons to object.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>569 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It accurately reflects values of Haverford.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>570 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It works.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>571 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Honor code's the ish</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>572 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I continue to trust in the Honor Code and its influence on the student body.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>573 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I'm a little skeptical of ratifying the code when only the academic portion is really taken seriously. Haverford students tend to ignore or 'conveniently forget' the rest of the code and what it stands for, particularly where alcohol is concerned.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>574 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: We are who we are</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>575 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's the cheese in Haverford's grilled cheese sandwich.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>576 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: In my opinion the changes were all important and a step in the right direction.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>577 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The past is all I've got.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>578 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The Honor Code helps to make Haverford the great place that it is!</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>579 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I love the honor code! I think everyone in this community needs some standards to live by, and the honor code provides these standards. Now we need to follow them and prove that is always works!</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>580 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I find no issues with the honor code personally, and find the honor code to be an important part of campus life. People may complain about the honor code, but I feel that this happens because not everybody is on the same page about what it means to follow the honor code. Obviously following the document to the letter is tough, but for it to work we need to all be conscientious of our actions and how they affect those around us before we start pointing fingers at the honor code or the institution. Keeping this ciao.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Poll Results

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Number</th>
<th>Statement</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>581</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: it's awesome.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>582</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The Honor Code is part of Haverford.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>583</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I like it.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>584</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The Honor Code is an integral part of the Haverford community. I believe that it fully serves its intended purpose.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>585</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Overall it works! Any system will have its flaws, but I believe the benefits outweigh the system's flaws.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>586</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I think it is still very applicable to student life at Haverford.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>587</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I had no issues with the previous honor code.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>588</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I feel that the amendments help free certain parts of the Code from ambiguity.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>589</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: it works.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>590</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I think it's good for the students.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>591</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The social honor code needs work. It should go beyond not having our stuff stolen in the DC, real community is more complex than that. I am voting to ratify the honor code because I really believe in it, and believe in Haverford's ability to enact it seriously and well.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>592</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: none</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>593</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Because its swizzy</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>594</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe the honor code represents what we stand for as a community. I do believe, however, that some of the resolutions denied would have been good additions to our present document. My reservations are not enough though to stop me from ratifying the code as it currently stands.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>595</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: honor code is amazing</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>596</td>
<td>(b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I support our Honor Code and its amendments, but I wish it said the word &quot;environment&quot;</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>597</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It influenced my decision to come to Haverford, and I continue to admire it and how it works in our community.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>598</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I feel the Honor Code is integral to the spirit and sense of community at Haverford, even if most of us do not talk about it on a daily basis. Though breaches of the honor code undoubtedly occur every semester, overall it urges us to act respectfully and honestly, and I think it makes us be better people.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>599</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with its values.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>600</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Regardless of the apparently rampant plagiarism that is currently plaguing our campus I think that it is a system that for the most part works and really contributes to this campus. I love the atmosphere that I think it helps create.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>601</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe that the Honor Code is an essential part of Haverford life, and I wish it to continue evolving and providing the campus with a moral code with which to live our lives by.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>602</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I love the smell of Honor Code in the morning.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>603</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Yes.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>604</td>
<td>(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: As someone who recently returned from abroad, I so appreciate the academic and social environment that exists at Haverford, and I believe that the best aspects of this environment result directly from the Honor Code.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
605 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It strengthens the community

606 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: i agree

607 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe the Code works, and works reasonably well.

608 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe in the Honor Code.

609 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: While I know this was strongly debated at plenary, and voted against, I feel that the inclusion of the physical environment in the Honor Code is a very important component. Whether it needs to be emphasized to the degree that was suggested at plenary, or whether it is already included in the Honor Code, I feel that the students should understand that respect for the environment is part of our duty as Haverford students.

610 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Why would I not want to ratify the Code?

611 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: It's concerning so many people are being brought to honor council so often.

612 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Continuity

613 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe it is still functioning as a social and academic code, and I see no reason for it to change at this moment in time.

614 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I am aware of what was added on to it and still agree with the honor code.

615 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: it looks fine

616 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: because the voices are telling me to.

617 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's who we are, it's what we do. Can't have HC without a Code. Plus, it's a good one.

618 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: gumbo

619 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I understand and value the Honor Code as an fundamental part of Haverford College and I hold no opposition to its current form.

620 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's worked well for me the whole time I have been here.

621 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Good

622 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The honor code is a way of life that should stick with you the rest of your life.

623 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: For the most part, the Code has worked well for us. If it ain't broke, don't fix it.

624 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe that having a set of community standards is essential for the community to be cohesive and to prosper

625 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I strongly believe in the Honor Code and think it is one of the best parts about Haverford

626 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The Code is the reason I came here and the reason I stay.

627 (c) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code, but I cannot vote for its ratification for the following reason(s):: The social aspects of the Honor Code do not work in practice and violations are not enforced enough by the Honor Council and administration.

628 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Y8OfRnn1Sdc

629 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The Honor Code is essential to how Haverford works, and personally, I think it provides a way for students to respect and trust each other to act honorably and in the best interests of the community, as well as a way to discuss perceived breaches of this trust.

630 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: There has been such an increase in cheating and social breaking of the code that I truly question its place at Haverford. Yes, we as students get so much out of the honor code, but with the number of times I have seen plagiarism and flat out cheating on this campus it makes me wonder how often it happens and I don't see it- and none sees it. It hurts the students who dont cheat and it allows haverford to turn out students that have not really completed a Haverford level of education. I fear it will ruin the institution as a whole to continue with this system, and it pains me to say that.

631 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Good work!

632 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: The rate of plagiarism cases is absurd, and I'm not sure the current code/jury processes make it clear to students that this is unacceptable and offer enough consequences to really discourage people from doing it.

Also, faculty should have to sign some version of the code!

633 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The principals of the code are what allow us to have the strong community that Haverford holds so dear.

634 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I approve.

635 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's a useful community tool.

636 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I don't think there should be take-home exams.

637 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It makes sense

638 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It is a part of school culture.

639 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's part of the reason I came to Haverford.

640 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: Something obviously needs to be done about the increasing amount of honor council trials. I support the code, but it is discouraging that so many students don't.

641 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: After almost four years at Haverford, I trust that, despite its imperfections, the Code will continue to function as a useful living document that guides our behaviors and decisions in a positive way.

642 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It is consistent with my values.

643 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It works.

644 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It delineates everything an honorable student should do.

645 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I like it, and I think it works well for Haverford.

646 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I like the code.

647 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It continues to perform its function admirably

648 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I like the community it has created during my first year here at Haverford.

649 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: Honor Council should not have the ability to recommend a grade change when the confronting and confronted party have reached consensus without agreeing to a grade change. Honor Council is supposed to serve as a facilitator and not as a judicial body that ignores the wishes of trial participants.

650 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I feel that the Honor Code, largely, does out what it says to do.

651 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's good

652 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's still the same basically.

653 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Nothing's
645 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Woo

654 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: aligns with my beliefs on how the college and its community members should behave.

663 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It adequately describes what it is to have an honorable life at Haverford

664 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I think the Honor Code is an honorable (no pun intended) and worthwhile thing. However, I feel that people at Haverford are beginning to take it less seriously, and it does affect how this community relates to each other and feels for the individuals in it.

673 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I strongly believe that such a system is preferable to any other kind of framework for college organization.

656 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I have had a terrible experience here. The dean of the college and administration showed me that they have no consideration for the code. However, the students and faculty continue to show otherwise.

660 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: After reading this draft of the code- I do not notice any significant changes to the code which may effect the code in a way I may perceive as harmful to the community.

657 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Sounds good

658 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: =)

661 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It makes Haverford the excellent institution it is!

662 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I don't think making tiny adjustments to the Code's wording (like "environment" vs atmosphere") effectively changes its meaning or the student body's mutual values of trust, concern, and respect. The Code is fine the way it is written right now.

666 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I love the idea of it but think that the social honor code is not followed nearly to the extent it should be or people believe it is.

667 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree and abide by our honor code.

668 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I like the honor code

669 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I like it and think it works as well as anything like this could.

670 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's great!

671 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe the changes will enhance the community.

672 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It is the reason I came here, and continues to be one of the most important parts of my experience here.

673 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe the Honor Code is an honorable (no pun intended) and worthwhile thing. However, I feel that people at Haverford are beginning to take it less seriously, and it does affect how this community relates to each other and feels for the individuals in it.

674 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: The Honor Code is meant to uphold Haverford Values as well as National Values. I cannot condone passing resolutions that are arguably illegal.

675 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The school would not exist as it does without the code.

676 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I strongly believe in the ideals of community awareness and respect, and even though I know those ideals will not be carried out or lived up to in the way that I think they should, the disappointment of an imperfect Honor Code is less intolerable to me than the thought of completely getting rid of it.

677 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Looks great

678 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I appreciate the responsibility the Code places on individual students to confront others; this helps to preserve the integrity of the community and avoids excessive trials.

679 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The additions to the code passed at plenary further define the student body's relationship with the administration, an addition which should be welcomed to the code.

680 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: Not an objection so much as a concern that the faculty are part of our community and it seems like a great many of them don't think the Code works anymore as a way of preventing academic dishonesty (and all the plagiarism cases imply that they have a point). There doesn't seem to be a whole lot of trust.

681 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: People don't follow it as they should, but it's presence is far far better then its absence.

682 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The Code is the unique force that ties together the respect and trust which represent the continued culture of seeking the highest in academic, social, and civil life.

683 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agreed with it last year, and approve of the changes from this Plenary.

684 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I support the code

685 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: does not include the environment

686 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe that the code provides a structure in which we are able to examine our actions and better live by communal standards.

687 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It still functions as I believe to be necessary

688 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Bought into it before still do.

689 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Off like a prom dress, Patrick

690 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I think for all it's flaws, it makes sense in this community.

691 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I'm satisfied with current state.

692 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I think its values are still relevant to our community.

693 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It means well.

694 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I love the code!

695 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's been good to me so far...

696 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I support everything the Code stands for, including respect for others and for the community. It played an integral role in my decision to come to Haverford

697 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: it makes haverford a great place

698 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I like taking exams when it is best for my brain!

699 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's a major reason I came here.
700 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It continues to do a great job of exemplifying the way Haverford students do and must treat each other

701 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: love code

702 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I trust the Code completely. Each essay I write and each test I take symbolize my trust that my fellow students are going through the same honorable process I am, and that the results will be the product of genuine hard work and intellect. I put my faith in the fact that my results as compared to my peers are not skewed by any unfair advantage or corner-cutting, and each act of faith I make renews my trust in this communal bond. Also, ratifying things is fun; it's a great word, too... ratify.

703 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I approve of the honor code, however, I'm not sure if I believe that it should state that an act of plagiarism will result in a grade change and separation from the community. It seems that when plagiarism does occur it often has some complicating factor and thus the penalty determined should be determined during the trial and does not need to be stipulated in the honor code.

704 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It is the living, breathing embodiment of what it means to be a Haverford student.

705 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It still works.

706 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe that the system works fairly and would like to keep it in place

707 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The Code defines Haverford life and is doing a mighty fine job as it is right now.

708 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I am in complete agreement with the Honor Code and wish to ratify it so as new generations may study and live under the same circumstances as I have at Haverford this year.

709 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: because it is an important part of our college

710 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Just couldn't be Haverford without it.

711 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons::

712 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: it reflects my needs and the needs I feel are important for the people around me.

713 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I think plenty of people don't take the code seriously these days, and we need to have more discussions about why-- and about whether we even need a code at all.

714 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Self-scheduled, unproctored exams are convenient.

715 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Well-reasoned ratifications.

716 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe that the Honor Code is extremely important to creating the unique community we have at Haverford. This is not to say that I believe that everyone does a good job following the Code or facing the discomfort of confrontation, but at the end of the day we can point to the Code as a set of values to live by, strive for, or, if nothing else, consider. It's helped me live a socially healthier life.
It's cool beans.

717 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It works well

718 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's awesome.
Stay awesome, Haverford.

719 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's excellent.

720 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I support it.

721 (c) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code, but I cannot vote for its ratification for the following reason(s):: I was unable to attend Plenary due to a mandatory conflict and do not feel educated enough in the discussions and decisions made to ratify the Honor Code.

722 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The Honor Code is central to the identity of the college and serves to make the social life at Haverford just as outstanding as the academic life.
723 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: because it has shaped my life for the better

724 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It works.

725 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I am satisfied with how it presides over campus life

726 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: because of reasons

727 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The honor code rocks my world

728 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The Honor Code remains as good as ever, meaning it is an integral part of the Haverford experience.

729 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The honor code is a good document, and generally works here.

730 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: i like it

731 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: As usual, I vote for ratification with the understanding that many Haverford students don't believe in the Honor Code, or don't value the Code as I do -- this doesn't mean the Honor Code has failed, or should not be ratified. For the most part, Haverford students embody the spirit of the Code, and that's good enough for me. I continue to encounter students who work hard to maintain and improve the Code, and I appreciate their hard work and careful thought.

732 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I LOVE IT!

733 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I appreciate the social environment that result from the Honor Code's presence (if not from students' active adherence to the Code).

734 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Haverford simply wouldn't be the same without the Honor Code. The code is one of the main reasons I applied and attended Haverford. I can't imagine this community without it. It's is truly a special document.

735 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It works.

736 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It still works, no matter how much people complain

737 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I think the Honor Code is an integral part of the Haverford Community. All of its specifics aside, just the fact that we have an Honor Code makes us special.

738 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: TURST CONCERN AND RESPEKT BABEE

739 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's grrrrrrreat!!!!!!!!!!!

740 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It works.

741 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Trust, concern, and respect is what it's all about :)

742 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: doesn't pose any problems for me and provides the convenience of flexible examination

743 (c) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code, but I cannot vote for its ratification for the following reason(s):: The most recent abstract sheds serious doubts about the nature of honor council and whether it has become too much of a punitive organization. The complete disregarding of both the opinion of the confronting party and the confronted party is extremely troubling. I feel we need to further examine the wording and role of the honor code.

744 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: it's good

745 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I am a big fan of the Honor Code.

746 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: I worry that the social portion of the honor code is slowly breaking down, and therefore have reservations about ratifying something that people follow less and less. I believe a good portion of this is people treating the social portion as carte blanche to do as they please unless someone calls them on it, rather than examining their actions and how these actions will affect the community, as the code states.
747 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It sets good community standards without being too inflexible by still allowing community members to resolve issues independently through confrontation and dialogue.

748 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I listened during plenary and was not upset by any of the resolutions passed. I believe that the student body makes good choices, and that student democracy and discussion can work.

749 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It remains well-thought out.

750 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with everything it stands for and says.

751 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Because it’s a cool guy

752 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I feel that the Honor Code contributes to an educational environment conducive to optimized learning.

753 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I think the Code is a good framework for creating an atmosphere of trust, concern, and respect.

754 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: luv dat code

755 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It may not be perfect - or more to the point - perfectly applied, but the code is a critical aspect of Haverford life. We would be an entirely different school without it, and I don't think the change would be positive.

756 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I love Haverford!

757 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The Honor Code is an essential part to life at Haverford, and it is one of the reasons I chose to attend this college.

758 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's what makes our school what it is. Simple as that.

759 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Haverford would not be the same without the Honor Code, and since this is a place that I adore, I would like it to remain the same.

760 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The honor code is vital to the Haverford community.

761 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe in what the Code does for our community.

762 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The Honor code is a quintessential part of the Haverford community and I came here because I believe that every Haverford student should embody the traits that the honor code demands. Accountability, Trustworthiness and respectfulness are all traits a Haverford student should display and the Code reflects these, therefore I agree that the code should be ratified.

763 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe this document is an admirable one and that re-ratifying it is a far better alternative to not re-ratifying it. Although there are no big changes, for me, to comment on at this time, I have no more reason to try to tear the Honor Code down than I do to try to tear down the Constitution of the United States.

764 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I like attracting optimistic freshmen into the community and I appreciate taking finals in my room.

765 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: It would be nice for the Code to mention a responsibility to the physical environment just as a set of guidelines or as a way of demonstrating a value of environmental awareness and concern. It does not have to be pervasive and overtaking but it is a value shared by many people at this school. I think the resolution was torn apart due to nuances with wording and specific scenarios, but most of the rest of the code is not specific to individual situations.

766 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's good for the community

767 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I see it working in action every day.

768 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I am perplexed by how much people seem to care on this campus. At plenary, I was disgusted by the behavior of my peers....caring all over the place about things I would never imagine caring about. They cared about the precise wording of documents I will never read or pretend to let guide me, they cared about whether we would send whiny letters to the administration for them to ignore: "can we not do PE?" "Can Professors wipe my butt during finals week?" they even cared about illegal immigrants...I thought only Arizonans cared about them. All this trust, concern, and respect is just sickening and needs to stop!

769 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: it's the reason Haverford is Haverford! It protects the rights of all of its students.

770 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Its fine

771 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's the best! Truly the best. Gotta love it. Gotta have it.

772 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I think the honor code does its job by setting a tone for how we choose to interact with one another on campus.

773 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: No changes I find objectionable have been made

774 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: it's fine

775 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: looks good to me

776 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The honor code is the foundation upon which the Haverford community is built.

777 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I love the Honor Code--I think it's an extremely integral part of our community!

778 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: One of the reasons i came to haverford is the honor code. I believe it is a vital part of what makes this school special. I only hope that people continue to take it seriously, so we can maintain a positive community dynamic

779 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: It is my belief that the code merits the inclusion of proposed resolution #4 from 2012 Spring Plenary, involving language changes with regard to "environment".

780 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I am in agreement with the values it intends to uphold.

781 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: yay!

782 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I agree with the resolutions reached during Plenary and I feel that the Code remains a document that I trust and respect and will continue to look to in terms of making decisions in my ever day life.

783 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It's what Haverford is based on.

784 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: h

785 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I think the Honor Code facilitates an amazingly engaged community on Haverford campus and I strongly believe in the tenets of trust concern respect. Although I'm sure that there is abuse or misuse of the system, I believe that the vast majority of students here are greatly positively affected by the Honor Code.

786 (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: Drinking poses a serious threat to the honest participation in the Honor Code, and that issue is never really addressed in the current setting. I worry that voting for the ratification of the Honor Code is something that people don't take seriously enough, when considering their actions every Saturday night, myself included. But how can anything change? I love the Code for all the good it does for the community, but its reach, I feel, isn't deep enough, which concerns me.

787 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: because its beautiful :)

788 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: i

789 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: <3HC

790 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: n

791 (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I'm graduating.
(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: The centrality of the Honor Code at Haverford has played an intrinsic role in making my college experience an extremely fulfilling and enjoyable one.

(b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s): I LOVE the idea of an honor code, and it has served me well at Haverford. However, I feel like it is only as effective as the people in the community make it, as it only works if people uphold the spirit of the Honor Code. I question whether that is always the case. I don't mean to say that people should be confronting one another constantly, but quite the opposite. Part of being a community is think about those around you and respecting them, not shoving your opinions down their throats if they cross you. It's about recognizing that your actions affect those around you, and acting in a manner that reflects that understanding. I'm not saying that people should be walking on eggshells either, but honestly, people here are not particularly

(c) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code, but I cannot vote for its ratification for the following reason(s): I feel that the spirit of the Honor Code is missing from the student body in many ways. While it does work on some levels and I appreciate its influence on a daily basis, I do not feel comfortable ratifying a document that our community has so much difficulty discussing. I think the Honor Code deserves some serious attention and re-working, not passive consent. I love the Honor Code, but I do not love the way it sits at Haverford, and I cannot support it.

(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: It does what it needs to do and does it well.

(c) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code, but I cannot vote for its ratification for the following reason(s): All good

(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: Still living the dream.

(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: Although it's not perfect, Haverford's honor code is a strong force in what I love and appreciate about this school, and I support and would like to foster the community it advocates.

(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: The Honor Code has been very important during my four years at Haverford.

(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: The code is what fosters a sense of community, trust, concern, and respect for all fords.

(c) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code, but I cannot vote for its ratification for the following reason(s): The slow break down of the Honor Code and the upsurge of Honor Council trials disturbs me and tells me that the Honor Code is not working. I think its value needs to be reconsidered by the student body as a whole. I expect ratification, however, and will happily continue trying to follow the Code as closely as possible, even if I will not vote for ratification.

(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: The Honor Code holds us to a high standard that isn't easy to maintain. I know that some people struggle to uphold it in every way, but I think it does its job astoundingly well. I've never been anywhere where people show each other so much respect. Sure there are problems and people complain, but we complain about things that are entirely normal and expected at other schools. I love the Honor Code for all of the freedoms and opportunities it gives us.

(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: Honor Code = :)

(a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: Comment.
considerate of each other.

813  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: :)

814  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Morality is the most important concept in any institution. We have the opportunity to define the collective concept of this institution’s morality and I'm proud to be a part of making that decision.

815  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It has not changed and its original meaning is still present

816  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: is there a spirit of the honor code or is there a spirit of the type of person that haverford attracts?

817  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It’s the essence of Haverford.

818  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I CODE not live without it.

819  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It maintains healthy and happy Haverford community relations.

820  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: yay Honor Code

821  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Elizabeth Swann: "According to the Code of the Brethren, set down by the pirates Morgan and Bartholomew, you must take me to your Captain!"

Pintel: "I know the code."

822  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Everybody loves the honor code.

823  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I love it.

824  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: because it works

825  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The Honor Code is great.

826  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The Code fosters accountability, responsibility and respect. Each of which is crucially important in the close-knit Haverford community, but also in our larger communities as well.

827  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I understand that the honor code is not a perfect document, and that we are not perfect people. I believe that the honor code pushes us to hold ourselves accountable to a highly moral and thoughtful way of life. During this process we may sometimes fail, and this is when the honor code guides us back. It serves as a reference point and I value its significance.

828  (c) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code, but I cannot vote for its ratification for the following reason(s):: I am not informed enough to make a vote

829  (b) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification, but I have the following objection(s):: We need to do more to encourage people to actually follow the honor code. I am not talking just about individual offenses, but about overall tones of interactions. Also, I think the environment should be explicitly dealt with in the code.

830  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It works...It's the essence of Haverford.

831  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Matching outfits of Emma and Jacob

832  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: So Many Geese and Gaggles

833  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I like the honor code and it is important to have

834  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Because if I don't, some shit will go down. Or so I've been told.

835  (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It works better than any other method in my opinion.

| 836 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: I like the Honor Code. It seems to work fine. I love you all. |
| 837 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: The Honor Code maintains a community which is centered around mutual respect and integrity. This community is the single identifiable difference between Haverford and the masses. I love this community, I love this school, and I am thus proud to ratify the Honor Code. |
| 838 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: Having seen the Code in action, I feel confident in its ability to govern our community. GO CODE! |
| 839 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: we need an honor code. |
| 840 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: it is the only way to have honest interactions with your community (although I wish I could say environment instead of community) |
| 841 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: I love this community, I love this school, and I am thus proud to ratify the Honor Code. |
| 842 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: I believe that it properly reflects the community's beliefs and intentions. |
| 843 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: The Honor Code is integral to our community at Haverford. I like our community here. Therefore, I like the Honor Code. |
| 844 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: the code sets a standard of community that underlies most if not all of my experience at haverford. |
| 845 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: I love it (with courage) |
| 846 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: The Code may not be perfect in its implementation, but I feel that it does a good job of creating a Haverfordian atmosphere of trust/concern/respect. <3 the Code! |
| 847 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: I feel it is a significant part of Haverford's academic and social culture. |
| 848 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: |
| 849 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: I'd out of a job otherwise |
| 850 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: Why not Zoidberg? |
| 851 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: I want next year's first-year students to experience the Code. I vote on behalf of the Class of 2016. |
| 852 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: It is good |
| 853 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: It's a good thing. |
| 854 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: It works! Obviously everything has flaws, but the Honor Code does provide an academic and social environment that is open and tolerant, and it is found only at Haverford. |
| 855 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: The code is an important part of life at Haverford. |
| 856 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: sure |
| 857 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: It's central to Haverford's community |
| 858 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: love the honor code. works well |
| 859 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: I agree. |
| 860 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons: I deeply believe in the values set forth in the code. |
| 861 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: sad |
| 862 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The Code is the best. |
| 863 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: BECAUSE THE HONOR CODE RULES! MAY DEMOCRACY AND CONSENSUS RULE ALL! |
| 864 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I believe the Honor Code enhances student life at Haverford. |
| 865 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I think it's important for Haverford. |
| 866 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: f |
| 867 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: The code holds the community together. |
| 868 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: why the hell not. |
| 869 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: I'm not one to rock the boat. |
| 870 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: glurg |
| 871 | (c) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code, but I cannot vote for its ratification for the following reason(s):: c |
| 872 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: Because. |
| 873 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: . |
| 874 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It works for me! |
| 875 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: it's awesome |
| 876 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: f |
| 877 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: It is perfect the way it is. Haverford should remain the same. |
| 878 | (a) I have thoughtfully considered my position on the Code and I vote for its ratification for the following reasons:: i like it. |