2. Guidelines
   a. Confronted party not cooperating
      i. Consideration of guidelines for parties not cooperating: sets timelines for when Council should proceed without them
      ii. Council members discuss various scenarios for which guidelines should/can apply
         1. Some members uncomfortable with guidelines; say they go against Quaker process of consensus (Council should consider each case individually; can never anticipate all possible scenarios)
         2. Other members think guidelines could be good to help future Councils make decisions iii. Discussion on wording: guidelines saying Council “should” do something vs. “considering” doing something iv. All council members present consent to guidelines 3. Final Discussions
   a. HCO training
      i. Had past exec board members on a panel to talk about Council
      ii. Idea to have past exec boards talk to new council at retreat
